The Westly is the ablest and most nowerful illustrated periodical published in this country. Its editorials are scholarly and carrying much weight. Its illustrations of current events are full and fresh, and are prepared by our best designers. With a circulation of 120,000, the Westly is read by at least half a million persons, and its influence as an organ of opinion is simply tremendous. The Westly maintains a positive position, and expresses decided views on political and social problems.—Louisville Courier-Journel.
